

SCREENING LICENSE

ELVIS OF CAMBODIA: THE LEGACY OF SINN SISAMOUTH

SHARE AN IMPORTANT STORY OF CAMBODIAN CULTURE

Elvis of Cambodia is a powerful documentary that captivates audiences with the life, music, and legacy of Cambodia's beloved singer, Sinn Sisamouth. This moving film celebrates the vibrant culture of Cambodia's yesteryear, while exploring the lasting impact of his music on generations past and present.

Perfect for film festivals, community events, and private screenings, this documentary connects with viewers on a deeply emotional level. It's more than a film; it's an experience that inspires conversations about music, culture, and the unyielding human spirit.

Screening Fee: $400 (One-time use license)

EMOTIONALLY UPLIFTING

CULTURALLY ENRICHING

ENGAGING AND MEMORABLE

OPTIONAL FILMMAKER ATTENDANCE

The filmmakers can attend your screening for a Q&A or panel discussion to add a deeper, personal connection to the story. Attendance is optional and can be arranged if travel and accommodation costs are covered.

Bring Elvis of Cambodia to your audience and create an unforgettable event. Contact us to secure your license and start planning your screening.

Email: chris@barangfilms.com

Website: www.elvisofcambodia.com

Elvis of Cambodia – A film that entertains, enlightens, and inspires.